

2018 CHICAGO FILM CRITICS ASSOCIATION AWARDS

Chicago, Illinois

Best Picture: Roma Mexico black-and-white Director: Alfonso Cuarón

Best Documentary: Minding the Gap United States Director: Bing Liu

Filmed in Rockford, Illinois.

Best Animated Feature: Spider-Man: Into the Spider-Verse United States

Co-Directors: Bob Persichetti, Peter Ramsey, and Rodney Rothman

Best Director: Alfonso Cuarón for Roma Mexico black-and-white

Most Promising Filmmaker: Ari Aster for Hereditary United States

Best Actress: Toni Collette for Hereditary United States Director: Ari Aster

Best Actor: Ethan Hawke for First Reformed United States

Director: Paul Schrader

Best Supporting Actress: Olivia Colman for The Favourite United Kingdom

Director: Yorgos Lanthimos

Best Supporting Actor: Richard Grant for Can You Ever Forgive Me?

United States Director: Marielle Heller

Most Promising Performer: Elsie Fisher for Eighth Grade United States

Director: Bo Burnham

Best Original Screenplay: Paul Schrader for First Reformed United States

Best Adapted Screenplay: Barry Jenkins for If Beale Street Could Talk

United States

Best Art Direction / Production Design: Lynne Huitson and Fiona Crombie for The Favourite United Kingdom color

Best Cinematography: Alfonso Cuarón for Roma Mexico black-and-white

Best Editing: Alfonso Cuarón and Adam Gough for Roma Mexico

Best Original Score: Nicholas Britell for If Beale Street Could Talk United States

Best Use of Visual Effects: Annihilation